

◀ Beatrice Webb, one of the founders of the London School of Economics, was an English economist focused on social and economic reform. She spent much of her life researching the causes of poverty. Webb wrote many books and scientific reports on the economic conditions of the working class.

Word	Part of Speech	Meaning	Word History	Other Forms
economics	noun	1) a science focused on the system in which goods and services are produced, delivered, and used; 2) financial considerations	from the French word économique , meaning “the art of managing a household”	economy (noun); economic , economical (adj)

Choose one meaning of the word and draw/insert a picture of it.

Name other words that mean about the same thing.

economics

Name other words that have the opposite meaning.

Write a sentence or question that includes this word.

So they say ...

“Too many people think that economics is this subject that should wait until the university level. But it can't wait that long.”

~ Robert Duvall (born 1931) is an American actor and filmmaker. Do you agree with his statement about economics? Why or why not?