Verb Tense #8	FUTURE PROGRESSIVE
When do we use this verb tense?	to describe an action or condition that will be in progress at a future time
How do we form this verb tense?	Place will be before the present participle (the –ing form of the verb). • I will be participating in the competition. • You will be visiting three museums in New York City. • The baby will be sleeping when we get home. • We will be learning about cells in science next year. • They will be moving to Phoenix next October.
Practice using the future progressive verb tense with a partner. 1. Point to a picture. 2. Make a statement about the picture using the future progressive verb tense. Follow the example.	 I will be sitting on this beach in three weeks.
Copyright ©2018 The Teacher Writing Center, a division of SG Consulting, Inc. All rights reserved. www.grammargallery.org